Assemblyman Horne launches new website

www.williamhorne.com designed to better connect voters and Assemblyman William Horne

Assemblyman William Horne announced the launch of his new website www.williamhorne.com today. The new site offers a blog, extensive links to other sites, a question and answer section, copies of recent mailers, and in-depth information about William Horne.

“I believe elected officials have an obligation to stay in touch, be accessible, and make their positions clear,” Horne said. “I had this website designed to help me do that. Through the use of the Contact button and the Q&A section, I hope to continue a conversation with the voters in Assembly District 34.”

Horne said he didn’t want the website to be just a political vehicle, but also one which could bring useful information to the residents. “As a parent with teenagers and toddlers, I thought I’d share some of the websites my wife and I use with our children,” Horne said. “And I included information about registering to vote and voting in the hope that more citizens will become involved in the process.”

Of course, with elections in August and November of this year, Horne also included his biography—and that Donate button for secure, on-line contributions.
